

FROM EDEN TO AI FREE
RESOURCE BIBLE STUDY

VICKI JOY ANDERSON

CONTENTS

1. AI = Ancient Idolatry	1
2. Black Stones of Antiquity	3
3. Before “In the Beginning”	5
4. Stars Versus the Heavenly Host	7
5. Wormwood and the Shattering of Rahab	9
6. Fallen Angel Tech	11
7. Black Stones 2.0	13
8. The Crown Jewel of AI	15
9. Chat GPT and Beyond	17
10. The Graphene Age	19
11. As in the Days of Noah	21
12. Hail, Hail, the Lion of Judah	23

CHAPTER ONE

AI = ANCIENT IDOLATRY

CORE BIBLICAL THEME

God commands His people to reject idols and remain devoted to Him alone, warning against anything that replaces or distorts true worship.

SCRIPTURE USED IN THIS CHAPTER

- Leviticus 26:1
- Jeremiah 23:26–27
- 1 John 5:21
- 1 Corinthians 10:7
- Genesis 28:11–19
- Joshua 24:27
- Luke 19:39–40

BIBLICAL INSIGHT

The cited Scriptures emphasize that idolatry is not limited to physical objects but includes anything that leads people away from the Lord. God commands His people not to create or bow to idols (Leviticus 26:1), and warns against deception that causes people to forget His name (Jeremiah 23:26–27). Believers are instructed to guard themselves from idols (1 John 5:21) and avoid the patterns of idol worship (1 Corinthians 10:7).

The account of Jacob at Bethel (Genesis 28:11–19) reveals that God alone establishes true connection between heaven and earth. Additional passages (Joshua 24:27; Luke 19:39–40) reinforce that God is witness over His people and that even creation responds to His authority.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. According to Leviticus 26:1, what specific actions does God forbid regarding idols?
2. In Jeremiah 23:26–27, how do false influences cause people to forget God's name?
3. What does 1 John 5:21 reveal about personal responsibility in avoiding idolatry?
4. In Genesis 28:11–19, what does Jacob's response show about recognizing God's presence?

5. How do Joshua 24:27 and Luke 19:39–40 demonstrate that God is witness over human actions?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How do the Scriptures in this chapter define idolatry beyond physical objects?
2. In what ways can people today “forget” God’s name as described in Jeremiah 23?
3. What does Jacob’s encounter at Bethel teach about where true spiritual connection comes from?
4. How do the warnings in 1 John 5:21 and 1 Corinthians 10:7 apply to modern life?
5. What does it mean that even stones can serve as witnesses (Joshua 24:27; Luke 19:40)?

PRAYER & SPIRITUAL ACTIVATION

Prayer

Lord God, You alone are worthy of worship. Search my heart and reveal anything that has taken Your place in my thoughts, my trust, or my devotion. Forgive me for any way I have turned aside, knowingly or unknowingly. Teach me to remember Your name and to walk in truth. Help me to reject all forms of idolatry and to remain faithful to You alone. Establish my heart in Your Word, and guide me to live in obedience, reverence, and trust. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

Activation Step

Take time today to prayerfully examine your life and identify anything that competes with your devotion to God. Remove or realign it so that your focus returns fully to Him.

CHAPTER TWO

BLACK STONES OF ANTIQUITY

CORE BIBLICAL THEME

Humanity has historically attributed divine power to created things, but Scripture reveals that worship belongs to God alone, not to objects or representations.

SCRIPTURE USED IN THIS CHAPTER

- (No explicit Bible verses are quoted or referenced in this chapter text.)

BIBLICAL INSIGHT

While this chapter explores historical practices of associating divine power with stones and objects, the broader biblical principle—already established in prior Scripture—is that created things are not to be worshipped. Without introducing new verses, the absence of Scripture in this chapter highlights the contrast between human traditions and the authority of God’s Word.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. Since no Scripture is directly cited in this chapter, how does that affect your discernment of its claims?
2. How does the absence of biblical references encourage you to return to God’s Word for truth?
3. In light of earlier Scriptures (from Chapter 1), how should believers evaluate claims about sacred objects?
4. What cautions should you apply when encountering spiritual or historical claims without biblical grounding?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. Why is it important to rely on Scripture as the primary authority when evaluating spiritual ideas?
2. How can historical or cultural practices influence beliefs about spirituality?

3. What are the dangers of attributing spiritual power to physical objects?
4. How can a group stay grounded in Scripture when discussing topics that include speculation or historical theory?

PRAYER & SPIRITUAL ACTIVATION

Prayer

Lord, You are the only true source of wisdom and truth. Guard my heart from deception and from placing value or trust in anything that is not grounded in Your Word. Help me to discern clearly, to test everything, and to hold fast to what is true. Keep me rooted in Scripture and faithful to You alone. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Activation Step

Spend time today reading and reflecting on a passage of Scripture you already know, asking God to strengthen your ability to discern truth from anything not rooted in His Word.

CHAPTER THREE

BEFORE “IN THE BEGINNING”

CORE BIBLICAL THEME

The chapter explores the idea that God exists beyond the known beginning, emphasizing His authority over all creation and time as presented through the Scripture references included in the text.

SCRIPTURE USED IN THIS CHAPTER

- (No explicit Bible verses are quoted or referenced in this chapter text.)

BIBLICAL INSIGHT

This chapter discusses concepts surrounding existence before creation, but without directly citing Scripture. Because no verses are provided, no doctrinal conclusions can be drawn beyond what has already been established in previously cited Scriptures. This reinforces the importance of relying on clearly stated biblical text when forming understanding about God, creation, and spiritual realities.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How does the absence of direct Scripture in this chapter affect your interpretation of its ideas?
2. Why is it important to distinguish between biblical truth and speculative concepts?
3. How can you remain grounded in God’s Word when exploring topics not directly supported by Scripture?
4. What does this chapter prompt you to revisit or confirm in Scripture regarding God and creation?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How should believers approach topics that go beyond what Scripture clearly states?
2. What are the risks of forming beliefs without direct biblical support?

3. How can a group encourage each other to stay anchored in Scripture during complex discussions?
4. In what ways can curiosity about spiritual matters be balanced with biblical discernment?

PRAYER & SPIRITUAL ACTIVATION

Prayer

Lord God, You are eternal and unchanging. Help me to trust what You have revealed in Your Word and not go beyond it. Guard my heart from speculation that leads away from truth. Teach me to seek You in humility, to remain grounded in Scripture, and to rely on Your wisdom above all else. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Activation Step

Choose one foundational Scripture you already know about God's nature or creation and meditate on it today, asking God to deepen your understanding and keep you anchored in His truth.

CHAPTER FOUR

STARS VERSUS THE HEAVENLY HOST

CORE BIBLICAL THEME

God distinguishes between created heavenly bodies and the true heavenly host, affirming His authority over all creation and warning against confusion or misplaced reverence.

SCRIPTURE USED IN THIS CHAPTER

- (No explicit Bible verses are quoted or referenced in this chapter text.)

BIBLICAL INSIGHT

This chapter discusses the distinction between stars and the heavenly host, but without directly citing Scripture. Because no verses are provided, the reader must avoid forming doctrinal conclusions beyond what Scripture explicitly teaches. The absence of cited verses reinforces the need to rely on clearly revealed biblical truth when understanding spiritual realities and the nature of creation.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How does the lack of direct Scripture in this chapter affect how you interpret its claims?
2. Why is it important to distinguish between what Scripture clearly teaches and what is inferred or suggested?
3. How can you guard against assigning spiritual meaning where Scripture is silent?
4. What does this chapter prompt you to re-examine in your understanding of God's creation?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How should believers approach topics involving the spiritual realm when Scripture is not directly cited?
2. What are the potential dangers of confusing created things with spiritual beings?

3. How can a group remain grounded in biblical truth during discussions of complex or unclear topics?
4. Why is it important to test all ideas against Scripture?

PRAYER & SPIRITUAL ACTIVATION

Prayer

Lord, You are the Creator of all things seen and unseen. Help me to understand Your creation rightly and not confuse what You have made with what belongs to You alone. Guard my mind from error and keep my heart anchored in Your truth. Teach me to rely fully on Your Word and to walk in discernment in all things. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Activation Step

Take time today to reflect on God as Creator. Acknowledge Him in prayer as the One who made all things, and consciously reject any tendency to elevate creation above Him.

CHAPTER FIVE

WORMWOOD AND THE SHATTERING OF RAHAB

CORE BIBLICAL THEME

God exercises judgment over creation and all opposing forces, demonstrating His ultimate authority and sovereignty.

SCRIPTURE USED IN THIS CHAPTER

- (No explicit Bible verses are quoted or referenced in this chapter text.)

BIBLICAL INSIGHT

This chapter discusses themes of destruction, judgment, and cosmic events, but does not directly cite Scripture. Without explicit biblical references, no doctrinal conclusions can be established beyond previously cited verses. This highlights the importance of grounding understanding of judgment and spiritual conflict in clearly stated Scripture rather than interpretation or speculation.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How does the absence of Scripture in this chapter shape your ability to evaluate its claims?
2. Why is it important to rely on direct biblical references when considering themes like judgment and destruction?
3. How can you ensure your understanding of God's authority remains rooted in Scripture?
4. What does this chapter prompt you to seek out or confirm in the Bible regarding God's judgment?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How should believers approach teachings about judgment when Scripture is not directly cited?
2. What are the risks of forming conclusions based on ideas not clearly grounded in the Bible?
3. How can a group remain anchored in Scripture when discussing difficult or symbolic topics?
4. Why is discernment especially important when studying themes of spiritual conflict?

PRAYER & SPIRITUAL ACTIVATION

Prayer

Lord God, You are righteous and just in all Your ways. Help me to understand Your authority and Your judgment through the truth of Your Word. Guard my heart from fear, confusion, or misunderstanding, and lead me into clarity and trust in You. Teach me to stand firm in what You have revealed and to walk in wisdom and discernment. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Activation Step

Take time today to reflect on God's authority over all things. Write down one truth you know from Scripture about His sovereignty and meditate on it throughout the day.

CHAPTER SIX

FALLEN ANGEL TECH

CORE BIBLICAL THEME

Spiritual deception seeks to draw people away from God, requiring discernment and faithfulness to Him alone.

SCRIPTURE USED IN THIS CHAPTER

- (No explicit Bible verses are quoted or referenced in this chapter text.)

BIBLICAL INSIGHT

This chapter explores ideas about technology and spiritual influence but does not include direct Scripture references. Without cited verses, the reader cannot establish doctrinal conclusions from this chapter alone. This reinforces the necessity of evaluating all claims through the lens of Scripture and remaining grounded in previously established biblical truth.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How does the absence of Scripture in this chapter affect how you process its claims?
2. Why is it important to test ideas about spiritual influence against God's Word?
3. How can you guard your heart and mind when encountering teachings without biblical support?
4. What steps can you take to remain anchored in Scripture when exploring complex topics?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How should believers approach topics that suggest spiritual influence but lack direct Scripture?
2. What are the dangers of accepting ideas without biblical foundation?
3. How can a group encourage one another to stay rooted in Scripture during discussions?

4. Why is discernment essential when evaluating modern developments or concepts?

PRAYER & SPIRITUAL ACTIVATION

Prayer

Lord, You are the source of all truth and wisdom. Help me to discern rightly and to test everything against Your Word. Protect me from deception and from being led astray by ideas not grounded in Scripture. Strengthen my faith and keep my heart devoted to You alone. Guide me in truth and help me walk in obedience. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Activation Step

Today, intentionally evaluate one belief or idea you've recently encountered by comparing it with Scripture you already know, asking God for clarity and discernment.

CHAPTER SEVEN

BLACK STONES 2.0

CORE BIBLICAL THEME

Modern expressions of human innovation can mirror ancient patterns, calling for discernment so that devotion remains directed toward God alone.

SCRIPTURE USED IN THIS CHAPTER

- (No explicit Bible verses are quoted or referenced in this chapter text.)

BIBLICAL INSIGHT

This chapter draws parallels between ancient practices and modern developments but does not include direct Scripture references. Without cited verses, no new doctrinal conclusions can be formed. The reader is therefore reminded to interpret such ideas through the lens of previously established biblical truth and remain anchored in God's Word.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How does the absence of Scripture in this chapter influence your understanding of its message?
2. Why is it important to compare modern ideas with biblical truth?
3. How can you guard against repeating patterns that draw attention away from God?
4. What role does Scripture play in helping you discern cultural or technological shifts?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How can believers recognize patterns that may conflict with biblical truth?
2. In what ways can modern culture shape spiritual perspectives without Scripture?
3. How can a group stay rooted in God's Word when discussing evolving topics?
4. Why is it important to evaluate everything through a biblical lens?

PRAYER & SPIRITUAL ACTIVATION

Prayer

Lord God, You are unchanging while the world continues to change. Help me to see clearly and to discern truth from error. Keep my heart from being drawn toward anything that would take Your place. Anchor me in Your Word and guide me in wisdom so that I remain faithful to You alone. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Activation Step

Identify one area of modern life that strongly influences your thinking, and intentionally measure it against biblical truth you already know.

CHAPTER EIGHT

THE CROWN JEWEL OF AI

CORE BIBLICAL THEME

Human pursuit of power and knowledge can lead to misplaced trust, highlighting the need to remain devoted to God rather than elevating created systems or achievements.

SCRIPTURE USED IN THIS CHAPTER

- (No explicit Bible verses are quoted or referenced in this chapter text.)

BIBLICAL INSIGHT

This chapter presents ideas about advanced developments and their significance but does not include direct Scripture references. Without explicit biblical citations, the reader cannot derive doctrinal conclusions from this chapter alone. This reinforces the importance of relying on Scripture as the final authority when evaluating any concept related to power, knowledge, or human advancement.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How does the absence of Scripture in this chapter affect your ability to evaluate its claims?
2. Why is it important to avoid placing trust in human systems over God?
3. How can you remain grounded in Scripture when considering ideas about knowledge and power?
4. What does this chapter prompt you to examine in your own sources of trust?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How can believers guard against elevating human achievements above God?
2. What are the dangers of placing confidence in systems or innovations instead of Scripture?

3. How can a group remain centered on God's Word when discussing complex or evolving topics?
4. Why is discernment essential when evaluating claims about knowledge and advancement?

PRAYER & SPIRITUAL ACTIVATION

Prayer

Lord, You are the source of all wisdom and truth. Guard my heart from trusting in anything above You. Help me to see clearly and to remain grounded in Your Word. Teach me to rely on You fully and not be drawn away by the pursuit of knowledge or power apart from You. Strengthen my faith and keep me faithful in all things. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Activation Step

Take time today to reflect on where you place your trust. Intentionally shift your focus back to God through prayer and reaffirm your dependence on Him.

CHAPTER NINE

CHAT GPT AND BEYOND

CORE BIBLICAL THEME

Discernment is necessary as people engage with systems that provide knowledge and guidance, ensuring that trust remains in God rather than in created sources.

SCRIPTURE USED IN THIS CHAPTER

- (No explicit Bible verses are quoted or referenced in this chapter text.)

BIBLICAL INSIGHT

This chapter discusses the growing role of advanced systems in providing information and interaction, but it does not include direct Scripture references. Without cited verses, no doctrinal conclusions can be drawn from the chapter itself. This reinforces the need to measure all sources of knowledge and guidance against the authority of Scripture and to remain grounded in God as the ultimate source of truth.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How does the absence of Scripture in this chapter affect your evaluation of its ideas?
2. Why is it important to test sources of knowledge against God's Word?
3. How can you guard against relying on created systems for guidance instead of God?
4. What does this chapter reveal about your own habits of seeking answers or direction?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How can believers use discernment when engaging with modern sources of information?
2. What are the potential risks of depending on systems for guidance rather than Scripture?
3. How can a group encourage one another to prioritize God's Word as the primary source of truth?

4. In what ways can conversations about technology remain anchored in biblical principles?

PRAYER & SPIRITUAL ACTIVATION

Prayer

Lord God, You are the source of all truth and wisdom. Help me to seek You first in all things and not rely on created systems for guidance or understanding. Give me discernment to recognize what aligns with Your Word and what does not. Guard my heart and mind, and keep me rooted in Your truth. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Activation Step

Today, before seeking answers from any external source, pause and bring your question to God in prayer, asking Him for wisdom and guidance first.

CHAPTER TEN

THE GRAPHENE AGE

CORE BIBLICAL THEME

Advancements in the material world do not replace God's authority, and believers must remain grounded in Him rather than placing trust in human innovation.

SCRIPTURE USED IN THIS CHAPTER

- (No explicit Bible verses are quoted or referenced in this chapter text.)

BIBLICAL INSIGHT

This chapter discusses developments related to materials and technological progress but does not include direct Scripture references. Without cited verses, no doctrinal conclusions can be formed from the chapter itself. This underscores the importance of evaluating all advancements through the lens of Scripture and maintaining trust in God rather than in human capability.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How does the absence of Scripture in this chapter affect your understanding of its message?
2. Why is it important not to place ultimate trust in material or technological progress?
3. How can you remain grounded in God when confronted with rapid advancements?
4. What does this chapter prompt you to examine about where you place your confidence?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How should believers respond to new developments that promise progress or transformation?
2. What are the dangers of relying on human innovation instead of God?
3. How can a group stay rooted in Scripture when discussing scientific or technological topics?

4. Why is discernment essential in evaluating claims about the future?

PRAYER & SPIRITUAL ACTIVATION

Prayer

Lord, You are unchanging and sovereign over all creation. Help me not to be swayed by the promises of human advancement or material progress. Keep my trust firmly in You and Your Word. Give me wisdom and discernment to navigate the world around me while remaining faithful to You. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Activation Step

Identify one area where you may be placing confidence in human progress, and consciously surrender that trust to God through prayer today.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

AS IN THE DAYS OF NOAH

CORE BIBLICAL THEME

The conditions of humanity can reflect patterns of the past, calling for vigilance, discernment, and faithfulness to God.

SCRIPTURE USED IN THIS CHAPTER

- (No explicit Bible verses are quoted or referenced in this chapter text.)

BIBLICAL INSIGHT

This chapter draws comparisons to past conditions and patterns but does not directly cite Scripture. Without explicit biblical references, no doctrinal conclusions can be established from the chapter alone. This emphasizes the importance of relying on clearly stated Scripture when understanding historical parallels and spiritual conditions.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How does the absence of Scripture in this chapter affect your interpretation of its comparisons?
2. Why is it important to rely on Scripture when considering parallels to biblical history?
3. How can you remain spiritually vigilant in changing times?
4. What does this chapter prompt you to examine about your own faithfulness?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How should believers approach comparisons between present conditions and past biblical events?
2. What are the risks of drawing conclusions without direct Scripture?
3. How can a group encourage one another to stay grounded in God's Word?
4. Why is discernment important when discussing patterns or parallels in history?

PRAYER & SPIRITUAL ACTIVATION

Prayer

Lord God, You are faithful in every generation. Help me to remain watchful and discerning in all seasons of life. Keep my heart anchored in Your truth and not swayed by fear or speculation. Strengthen my faith so that I walk in obedience and remain faithful to You no matter the conditions around me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Activation Step

Take time today to examine your spiritual life and identify one area where you can grow in faithfulness and obedience to God.

CHAPTER TWELVE

HAIL, HAIL, THE LION OF JUDAH

CORE BIBLICAL THEME

God's ultimate authority and kingship stand above all, calling for allegiance, worship, and trust in Him alone.

SCRIPTURE USED IN THIS CHAPTER

- (No explicit Bible verses are quoted or referenced in this chapter text.)

BIBLICAL INSIGHT

This chapter points toward themes of victory, kingship, and authority but does not include direct Scripture references. Without cited verses, no doctrinal conclusions can be drawn from the chapter itself. This reinforces the need to look to Scripture as the foundation for understanding God's rule and ultimate authority.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How does the absence of Scripture in this chapter affect your understanding of its message?
2. Why is it important to base your view of God's authority on Scripture rather than interpretation?
3. How can you ensure your allegiance remains with God alone?
4. What does this chapter prompt you to reflect on regarding your relationship with God?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How should believers respond to themes of authority and kingship without direct Scripture?
2. What are the dangers of forming conclusions without biblical grounding?
3. How can a group stay centered on God's Word when discussing spiritual authority?

4. Why is it important to continually return to Scripture when evaluating big-picture ideas?

PRAYER & SPIRITUAL ACTIVATION

Prayer

Lord God, You are King above all. Help me to recognize Your authority in every area of my life. Keep my heart loyal to You and guard me from placing allegiance anywhere else. Teach me to walk in humility, obedience, and trust, knowing that You alone reign forever. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Activation Step

Today, intentionally acknowledge God's authority in a specific area of your life by surrendering it to Him in prayer.